

LYRICS FOR EVERY DAY'S A JOURNEY

By Lisa Brigantino

When I see my reflection
When I see all I can
It's not all on the outside
Deep inside's who I am

And the light that's in my eyes
Will shine from sea to sea

CHORUS:

Every day's a journey
Every day's a chance
Every day there's one more way
To travel your own path

When I truly am happy
When I follow my bliss
There's no need to be regretful
Of anything that I've missed

And I'm not racing anyone
I'm just facing me

CHORUS:

Every day's a journey
Every day's a chance
Every day there's one more way
To travel your own path

BRIDGE:

There's no beginning
There is no end
There is no right and wrong
Just you and your life

CHORUS:

Every day's a journey
Every day's a chance
Every day there's one more way

Every day's a journey
Every day's a chance
Every day there's one more way
To travel your own path
